

PROSPECT SIERRA PARENT'S ASSOCIATION PRESENTS

MARGUERITE A. WRIGHT

DYNAMIC AND ENERGETIC SPEAKER, AUTHOR OF I'M CHOCOLATE, YOU'RE VANILLA, AND SENIOR CLINICAL AND RESEARCH SCIENTIST AT OAKLAND'S CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL

This is an opportunity for parents and teachers to hear fascinating stories and gain insights and practical strategies about:

- what parents and teachers can do to influence children's, middle schoolers' and teenagers' views of race and ethnicity,
- developmental stages of children's awareness of racial identity,
- practical strategies for teaching children the varying ways in which children of different races experience the meaning of skin color, and
- insights on how the Prospect Sierra community can foster a positive racial atmosphere for all children.

Please join us on March 29th for an exciting evening of learning and lively conversation! Childcare is provided free in the Tapscott After School room. Light snacks and beverages will be provided.

Thursday, March 29, 2007, 7:00–9:00 p.m.

Tapscott campus, Music Room

Attention K & 1st grade parents: Dr. Wright will facilitate a discussion for kindergarten and 1st grade parents the next morning, on Friday, March 30th, from 9 to 10:30 in the Tapscott Library.

Call or email Jenny Kinder (510) 697-2934 (jenniferkinder@mac.com) or Sloane Morgan (510) 501-2299 (sloane\_morgan@earthlink.net) for more information.

Interested in bringing speakers to Prospect Sierra? Join the PA's Parent Education Committee