

HIP HOP DANCE!

Friday, April 5th– Friday, May 31st, 2019

3:05 - 4:05 p.m.

With Madeleine Rogin

Dancer, Teacher, Performer/ MA in dance from the University of New Mexico

In this class we will explore a myriad of dance techniques in the current style of hip-hop. We will be dancing to the latest, clean hip-hop songs. Students will develop a rhythmic sense of movement through invigorating, high-energy hip hop moves as well as learn techniques of choreography and performance. There will be a final performance for parents/caregivers and friends.

This class is open to grades 1-4.

Class size is limited; enrollment is on a first come first served basis,
There will be no class April 19, May 24, and June 7 due to school holidays/early release days.

Tuition: $150

prorated refunds for dropping class after first class, no refunds thereafter

priority given to 4th graders as long as enrollment received by deadline
